

You should be strengthening the nocall laws to at least what Wisconsin has, not weakening them. I believe one of our fundamental rights is our right to privacy, companies should not be allowed to violate that right physically, electronically or in any other manner.